New York, Aug. 7.—Prices in the stock market crumbled in the furiously active final hour of trading today. The declines, which were the most severe in many months, came unexpected. When the market opened speculative interests resumed their operations in a cheerful frame of mind, evidently taking little heed of such recent events as the ultimatum of the callroad brotherhoods and other disturbing developments.

NEW LONDON INDEPENDENTS

The fast Ashland A. A. team will play at Ashland Park Sunday, with the snappy New London Independents for their opponents. This is the team that defeated tile Wauregan Grays I to 0 in a ten-inning game. This team is an exceptionally fast and snappy one. Their manner states that they will spare no expense to defeat the famus Liberty battery and the Ashland team. Saturday Ashland A. A. will play Connecticut Mills at Danielson and a very speedy game is a certainty as the teams are playing this game on a percentage basis. A large crowd of Jewett City fans will accompany the team to the little town up the road and are confident that they will see that home team bring home the bacon. Manager L'Heureaux of the A. A. team states that his men were never better and if they do not cop off both games this week-end they will surely lose their rating. As usual Jarvis will pitch the Saturday game ty of speed. The former was turned will surely lose their rating. As usual Jarvis will pitch the Saturday game and Liberty the Sunday one. The crack infield will be the same for these games as previously, as Manager L'Heaureaux firmly believes he has the best amateur team in Connecticut, and that there are very few semi-pro teams that can show the Ashland team the way to bring home the bacon.

COLONIAL MANAGER

Thursday afternoon Manager Friedman and Captain McDonald of the Colchester team and Max Scholter, the team's backer, were present at the spot arranged for by Manager Woodmansee of the Colonials. Manager Woodmansee, however, failed to show up. These two managers were to meet at The Bulletin office to make arrangements for a game to be played in the near future. The Colchester team was there with the money guarantee, but as there was no one present to cover the bet they returned home.
